Handcrafted in Ireland Since 1857

Each piece of Belleek is created by 16 individual artisans. From design to production to quality control at our historic pottery, a process that has changed very little since 1857.

Design

Belleek's dedicated team of in-house designers carry out trend and market research to bring new designs to the marketplace. Computer aided drawings and traditional drawings are produced and carefully selected.

Modelling

A three-dimensional plaster or clay model is created from the design drawings. This is an accurate reproduction of the design showing every intricate detail and surface relief.

Moulds

An initial mould will be made from the three-dimensional model, a second mould will be made from this first mould. This second mould this is called the 'case mould' and will be used to make all the subsequent working moulds. Belleek's Master Mould Chamber contains Block Moulds dating as far back as the 1860's.

Basket and Flower Making

Belleek's world famous Baskets and flowers are intricately hand woven with meticulous detail using extruded spaghetti like strands. Each flower is hand-crafted, often petal by petal and carefully hand applied.

Casting

The moulds are filled to the top with slip, liquid clay. After the allotted time, the excess slip is poured off and the moulds are left to dry. As the piece dries it shrinks away from the mould and in time it can be gently separated. The slip has now become clay.

Fettling

Fettling is the skilled sharpening or delineation of the pattern. This intricate process also includes the elimination of seams, smoothing, rounding of edges and the fitting together of parts like handles.

Firing

Every piece of Belleek will go through upto 3 different firing processes in our kilns. This includes the 'biscuit' firing, the 'gloss' or glaze firing and the final 'enamel' firing.

Stamping

Perfect items that have passed quality control are given the famous Belleek trademark stamp. This stamp indicates when the product was made and that your Belleek is authentic.

Painting

Any decorated pieces of Belleek will be hand painted using enamel paints before it's final firing process to 'fix' the enamel and stamp.

Belleek's reputation has been built on product excellence. Only Belleek of the highest quality is ever put on sale.

Back in 1857, the pottery's founder John Caldwell Bloomfield declared that any piece with even the slightest flaw should be destroyed.

Over 165 years later, this golden rule is strictly adhered to. The result is perfection.

Trademarks & Collectors Society

Belleek Trademarks

All Belleek marks, with minor exceptions, include symbols which are unmistakably Irish, i.e. the Irish Wolfhound with the head turned to face one of Ireland's distinctive round towers - the model for which is believed to have been Devenish Round Tower on the Lower Lough Erne's Devenish Island. The Irish harp and two sprigs of shamrock border the ends of the banner at the base of the design which carries the single word BELLEEK in capital letters. The years given denote the approximate date of production.

Shamrock

Shamrock Tableware, with its basketweave, is a timeless design first created in the 1880's. The simplicity of the pattern is based on the weave used in wickerwork baskets, once a common feature of both town and country. The design also cleverly uses the stems of the shamrocks to shape such features as the handles and details of the design. It remains an iconic collection, one symbolic of Belleek's long craft tradition. Tableware also available with gold rim.

Edition Piece 2024

Tree of Life Vase

Tree of Life Vase has been inspired by ancient Celtic Mythology and the importance of nature in early Irish life.

The Ancient Celts depended on the trees for their day-to-day existence as they provided a means of shelter, food, heat and even housed wildlife that was once hunted in Ireland. The Celts believed there was a connection between nature and the life beyond.

The tree represented a connection between earth and the afterlife, mind and body and the never-ending cycle of life. It is thought they believed that trees held the spirits of their ancestors. The Oak was seen as a towering symbol of nobility, strength, endurance, longevity and wisdom.

This beautiful piece will only be available for 2024.

Annual Basket

Annual Basket 2024 - Daisy Chain

This beautiful handmade porcelain Belleek Basket has been inspired from Claire's childhood memory of making Daisy Chains in her grandparent's garden over the school summer holidays.

Each intricately woven and flowered basket is crafted in the same timeless fashion and skills introduced by William Henshall in the 1870's. A symbol of innocence and joy, our new Daisy flower is delicately made by hand combining a number of fine petals. Painted using mother of pearl each tiny petal reflects the light, all brought together by its bright yellow centre. Green stems are intricately woven and threaded through each other to re-create a traditional daisy chain which has been carefully placed around the edge of this new shaped round basket where you will find two ladybirds sitting amongst the daisies.

The Annual Basket comes with a special backstamp and a Certificate of Authenticity. Only available for 2024.

King Charles Coronation Replica Basket

This beautiful handmade porcelain Belleek Basket is a smaller replica of the one recently gifted to HM King Charles III.

A Celebration of the King's Coronation on May 6th 2023, the Coronation Basket is adorned with Delphiniums, said to be His Majesty's favourite flower from one of the gardens in Highgrove. Each intricately woven and flowered basket is crafted in the same timeless fashion and skills introduced by William Henshall in the 1870's. This covered oval basket is flowered on the lid with Delphiniums, a new flower especially created by the craftspeople in Belleek Pottery and finished with a contemporary ring handle. Hand painted tones of blue and hidden bumble bees nestled in the flowers bring this special basket to life.

The Coronation Basket comes with a special blue backstamp which has been added to a porcelain plaque on the base and a Certificate of Authenticity.

Baskets

The creation of each Belleek Basket tells us a story about the amazing art of Belleek Basket making. Basket and flower making was introduced to Belleek by William Henshall who came to work for Belleek Pottery in the late 1860's. Over the next forty years he developed the craft and trained the local craftsmen in the necessary skills. These in turn passed their skills down through the following generations to the present day. Each basket comes gift boxed and with a Certificate of Authenticity.

Monea Castle - Based in County Fermanagh this detailed Belleek Votive represents a local landmark, Monea Castle. Built in 1618 for the Hamilton Family, it was both a home and place of protection. The ruins are on private farmland and can still be visited.

A pretty example of an Irish Castle, the LED emits a soft glow highlighting the hand crafted stone detailing which is also hand painted. The piece is also embossed with a vine of flowers and a lucky shamrock on the reverse with the base finished with a gold line.

The Quiet Man Cottage Votive - The cottage used as the house belonging to the "Quiet Man" was located in Cong, Co. Mayo situated in the west of Ireland. The cottage, then lived in by the Joyce family, was used as part of the set in the 1952 film called the Quiet Man starring John Wayne and Maureen O'Hara as well as then veteran actor Barry Fitzgerald. John Ford who made it as homage to his own Irish background directed the film. He was born Sean Aloysius Feeney O'Fearna in 1895 in Maine, the youngest of thirteen children born to Irish immigrants.

The film received a total of seven Academy Award nominations (including Best Picture, Best Supporting Actor - Victor McLaglen, Best Screenplay - Frank Nugent, Best Art Direction and Best Sound) and won two Oscars Best Cinematography - Winton Hoch and Archie Stout, and Ford (at 57 years of age) won his fourth and final Best Director Oscar, establishing a record that is still unbeaten.

The Quiet Man cottage since then has become a memorable and popular tourist attraction in the village of Cong.

The "Quiet Man" cottage votive is a lovely gift to give and a much appreciated addition to any Belleek Collection.

Angel of Protection

In ancient Ireland there was a belief that everyone had a guardian angel to protect them from danger or harm. Thus the idea for the Belleek Angel of Protection came into being.

This cute kneeling angel is holding a shamrock, a symbol of good luck and good fortune and will serve as a reminder that everyone has their own guardian angel, to keep one safe and well for all the ups and downs of everyday life.

Annual Ornament

Keenaghan Cottage Annual Ornament 2024

Keenaghan Cottage which means 'a mossy place' is one of the more unique holiday cottages in the Fermanagh Lakes.

An original 1800's thatched lakeside cottage, it is situated just outside the village of Belleek. On the other side of the small Lake lies the ruins of Keenaghan Abbey which was an important part of the Caldwell Estate and part of the Ancient kingdom of Miodbholg, now known as Mulleek. The Caldwell Estate was inherited by John Caldwell Bloomfield where the famous story of Belleek Pottery began.

Hand painted, the cottage has a lovely thatched roof and a red tin roof on the attached shed. A bicycle is propped up against the gable wall, the window boxes are full of flowers and there is a shamrock on the back of the piece.

Only available for 2024.
