Traditional Brand, Contemporary Thinking

Quintessentially English

Our artisans have been handcrafting enamel boxes in the heart of England since we became the sole revivers of the centuries-old art form in 1970. Using largely unchanged, ancient techniques, they handle each one up to a hundred times before it leaves our doors.

These boxes bring the best of the past into the present; works of art in their own right, they make a case for the meticulous, artisanal and unique in a world of mass production.

We have been producing our signature enamel message boxes for over 50 years. While a lot has changed in those five decades, the uniquely touching gesture of sending an enamel box to someone special has never lost its potency.

 Ceiling of the Chapel Royal, St James's Palace
 Musical Box
 A Limited Edition of 100
 Plays Zadok the Priest
 L: 95mm W: 82mm H:50mm
 L: 3 3/4" W: 3 1/4" H: 2"

Inspired by the decorative ceiling of the Chapel Royal, St. James's Palace, the ceiling is host to a wealth of history. Hans Holbein was commissioned by Henry VIII to decorate the chapel and details of the ceiling were copied from the ambulatory vault of S. Costanza, Rome, with the illustrative painting attributed to Italian craftsmen, commemorating the marriage of Henry VIII & Anne of Cleves.
