Highgrove is the much-loved private residence of Their Majesties The King Charles III & The Queen.

The Wildflower Meadow Collection stems from the collaboration between Highgrove Gardens and Halcyon Days. The meadow is an ever-changing canvas and was originally hand sewn with Miriam Rothschild's 'Gloucestershire Farmers' Nightmare Mix' in 1982. The untamed and abundant meadow is peppered with forget-me-nots, buttercups, red clovers and ceanothus, all of which inspired this collection.

Halcyon Days' exquisite Antler Trellis collection was inspired by the stag antlers that once lined the domed ceiling at Gordon Castle – situated in the wooded wilderness in the Scottish Highlands.

With very few photographs remaining of this famous ceiling, Halcyon Days are proud to have been part of reviving and protecting such a beacon of Scottish heritage and history.

Decorated with a gold mica trellis, available in rich shades of midnight, ivory and black - this collection is an exceptional example of timeless British craftsmanship, steeped in British History it enhances any interior.
